

From the Oct. 2008 issue of St. Louis Magazine

Terri Boyle Boyle Creative Solutions

314-288-6551 • www.boylecreative.com

Terri Boyle always enjoyed thinking of creative solutions, and at age 23 her entrepreneurial spirit pushed her to start her own creative studio.

Today, armed with that rare balance of creativity and sound business sense, Terri has propelled the success of her three-year-old company, Boyle Creative. The marketing, advertising and graphic design studio guides companies through the tricky waters of branding, literature development, and everywhere in between. Terri educates and listens to clients in order to reveal underlying goals for each project. The result?

Design so good... it's 'Terribyle'!

SIGN OF SUCCESS: "The fact that 90 percent of my business comes from referrals."

THE PAY-OFF: "Knowing that what I do helps other small- and medium-sized businesses compete, grow and take pride in what they do."

LEISURELY PURSUITS: "I love driving with the sunroof open, the smell of Christmas trees, good coffee, a book you can't seem to put down, and margaritas with friends and family."

Holly Cunningham Hollyberry Baking Company/Hollyberry Catering

314-968-9239 • www.hollyberrypatisserie.com (gift sales)
www.hollyberrycatering.com (local catering sales)

For 10 years, St. Louis native Holly Cunningham has been busy building a powerhouse gift expanded from made-from-scratch baked goods to catering social and corporate events.

